Fun at the Seaside

EYFS Pentecost 2 2025

Role Play – In Early Years children learn to engage in role play to support their social interactions and communication.

Role Play Areas

Seaside shop and ice cream parlour.

Understanding the World

We will be exploring the seaside in the past and present, looking at similiarities and differences and drawing on their own experiences.

We will also be exploring the differences between land and water. The children will have the opportunity to use and create their own maps. We will explain some similarities and difference between life in this country and other countries.

Literacy

Here are the stories we will be exploring this half term:

Billy's Bucket, How to be a Viking and Tiddler

Watch me!   Watch me!   Watch me!

Billy's Bucket

Billy's Bucket follows a young boy named Billy who receives a bucket for his birthday. He fills it with water and imagines it's the ocean, with all sorts of amazing sea creatures inside. Disbelieving parents eventually borrow the bucket to clean the car, and are surprised by the unexpected contents, showcasing the power of imagination.

How to be a Viking

"How to be a Viking" is a picture book about a young Viking named Hiccup who is afraid of everything, especially the sea. Hiccup's first ocean voyage reveals that even brave Vikings can have fears, and Hiccup's bravery is tested when a storm threatens his tribe's journey home.

Tiddler

Although he looks small and ordinary, Tiddler is a fish who loves to tell tall tales. In school, he entertains his incredulous classmates with stories of diving with dolphins and meeting mermaids.
